The cold blast swept by the stately house

And above the eaves tall

And the trees with boughs of a gathering storm

From the sky the wind came

As the bark of the wave's high hands

To such the storm swept by.

And the silence of the world was stirred

By a melancholy sigh.

He gazed from his seat, and, in sympathy,

He gazed from his seat,

The Russellville Herald appeared last week as a semi-weekly, bright, new and attractive.

The Democratic Governors of Ohio and Iowa would telegraph their congratulations to the Democratic Governor of Rhode Island.

Albert Witzel, a German blacksmith at Corydon, Ky., has inherited $10,000 from a relative in Germany and received the money last week.

The Supreme Court has exonerated Marshal Nagle from all blame for the killing of Judge Terry, who was in the act of assaulting Justice Field at Louisville, Ky., last August.

Senator J. S. Wortham, of Leitchfield, and Hon. J. L. Dorsey, of Henderson, are already out as candidates for Superior Court Judge in this district.

The lozenge on the new Brazilian flag is not to advertise a patent medicine, but is doubtless designed to benefit those who shout themselves hoarse on holiday occasions.

The Nashville produce exchange or "huckel shop," with branches at many of the smaller towns, including this city, made an assignment Tuesday for $100,000; assets considerably less.

We have received this week two separate calls upon Esq. W. E. Warfield to become a candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention. As Esq. Warfield has already announced his candidacy, it is deemed unnecessary to give space to any more calls upon him.

The Interior Journal presents Hon. Richard C. Warren, of Stanford, as a candidate for Auditor, representing the young Democracy of the State. Mr. Warren is at present a member of the Legislature and is one of the ablest men and best speakers in the House.

The House has placed itself very emphatically on record in favor of reducing State taxes five cents on the hundred dollars. This is as it should be. The people want lower taxes and with an estimated surplus in the treasury there is no reason why the rate should not be lowered a little.

The Democrats swept things in the heretofore Republican city of Butte, Montana, last Monday, electing the Mayor and all of the Councilmen but one by several hundred majority. The issue in the fight was the Tunnel Precinct outrage, and the theft of the two Senatorships by the Republicans.

The Louisville Truth of last Sunday contained a long letter from W. H. Pope the defaulting, bunk toller, who ran off March 1. He carefully concealed his whereabouts, but claimed to be safely settled and making money on the $10,000 he took with him. He concluded by promising to pay back all of the stolen money within three years.

The howl that went up from all over the country has forced the Republican Wives and Mothers Committee to recede from some of its contemplated schemes of robbery. Hides have been returned to the free list and sugar has also been made free, with a bounty of two cents. Eighteen Republican members signed a protest and brought the committee to their terms.

The Rhode Island elections have at last been concluded. Of the twenty-eight members of the Legislature who were not elected at the regular election, twenty-two have been chosen by the Democrats. This gives the Democrats the control of that body by a vote of fifty-seven to fifty-three and insures the election of the entire Democratic State ticket from Governor down. The State ticket was something over 1,000. This victory places "Little Rhody" in the list of safely Democratic States. The only source of regret is that she does not elect a Senator this year.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

Gov. Buckner has signed the cont. bill, which is now a law.

Mr. Wharton has offered a bill to amend the charter of Wallonia.

Senator Sam E. English is a candidate for Constitutional Delegate from Jefferson county.

Representative Jno. C. Draddy, of Newport, will be married on the 29th inst. to Miss Adele Gildehouse.

Gov. Buckner has signed the bill establishing a whipping post in Graves county for petit thieves.

The House has decided finally and fully to adjourn May 12. The Senate has voted to go home two days earlier.

Mr. Rowell has offered a bill requiring a top plank to be put on wire fences to protect stock from the birds.

Tuesday was bill day and thirty new bills were introduced, notwithstanding the approach of the end of the session.

Mr. Clark has introduced a bill to define and establish the boundaries of common school district number Ninety-one for white children in Christian county.

An act has been passed changing the boundary line between Washington and Mercer counties. The act gives 94 votes to Mercer county, most of them Republicans.

The bill continuing the Geological Survey is about to be run over and forgotten in the rush of legislation. The good work this Bureau is doing justifies a longer lease of life for it.

The total number of bills introduced this session is 1722 and less than half of them have become laws, although the session will close within a few weeks. Many of them will of course never be acted upon.

The matter of establishing a fourth asylum came up Wednesday again and was obscured in a flow of oratory. The minority report of the Committee on Charitable Institutions recommends an enlargement of the old asylum.

The bill to increase the salary of the judge of the Christian county common pleas court $600 was killed in the House by an amendment requiring the county of Christian to pay the extra $600. The salary is now $1,200, one-half of which is paid by the county.

The tax reduction bill vetoed by the Governor came up as a special order Wednesday. After an hour's discussion the House by a vote of 64 to 15 tabbed the motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill had been passed over the Governor's veto. This settles it in the House. It now goes to the Senate, where the Governor is likely to be sustained.

A very important bill has been introduced in the Senate by Mr. McMan providing for an inspection of live stock to be slaughtered for market. It is to be applied to cities and towns and no live stock can be killed for market until they have been inspected and favorably passed upon by an inspector. The object of the bill is to protect the public from diseased meat and at the same time protect the home butchers from outside competition. It is a good bill and ought to pass.

The medical fraternity, backed up by carefully compiled statistics, is almost a unit in declaring that a moderate use of stimulants conduces to long life. It is also admitted that old whiskey is by far the best stimulant that can be used. Leading physicians recommend the I. W. Harper Whiskey, because it is pure, possessed of a superior flavor and bouquet, and is not offered for sale until it is old and thoroughly matured.

SINKING FORK.

SINKING FORK, April 15.—The people of our neighborhood are ploughing now, between showers, preparing for corn.

Miss Alice Hiser has been staying with Miss Maggie Vaughn for the last few days.

Mrs. May Wood is teaching school at Pisgah, and has a full school.

One of our best wheeler's signs is to scratch your head.

Every body on this road has a dog except Mr. John Clark and he says he will wait till the storm comes and then dig his a running.

CLINKER.

BLAKELY SCHOOLHOUSE.

BLAKELY SCHOOLHOUSE, Ky., April 8.—Here we are again, but times are hard and news is scarce.

Farmers are complaining generally about so much wet weather that they can't plant their corn crop.

Tohaco plants in this neighborhood are up, except some late sowing and some are about square.

The land has been so wet that a small crop of oats has been sown. There has been no corn planted as yet.

Eld. J. U. Spurlock filled his appointment at Buffalo Saturday and Sunday and in addition Rev. A. W. Meacham was present on Sunday and gave a very interesting discourse.

Mr. L. J. Stewart has been very sick with the grippe but is better at this writing.

Mrs. S. F. Cox is recovering from a very severe spell of the grippe.

We are very glad to report that Mrs. M. D. Burgess is convalescent. Mr. Bora Brandon, whom we had almost given up as dead, has put in his appearance again.

Miss Lula Ladd, who has been visiting in this neighborhood, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. S. H. Burgess is very sick at this writing.

We learn that Mr. Elijah Ladd's family are all sick. I think its the grippe.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they can not remove the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining that tube gets inflamed. Then when that tube gets inflamed you have a runny nose and imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine eases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous sur-

A Word of Approval.

Editor Hopkinsville Kentuckian:

I want to commend and heartily endorse the editorial comments in your Tuesday's issue on the action of a minority of our county court in appropriating $5,000 to pay the attorneys of the L. & N. railroad for helping to prevent us from getting out of the oppressive grasp of that corporation.

The whole thing was a shame and an outrage, and I am glad you had the courage to speak out on the subject. The men who not only disregarded the expressed wants of their constituency, but employed counsel to defeat them are, to say the least, "cheeky" to require the people to pay for it. They exceeded their authority in engaging other than our duly elected and paid county attorney; and as they presumed to incur that expense, whatever it may be, they should bear it themselves.

But aside from this, even had the people approved of their action in employing counsel, not so sensible business men should have made such a loose contract or allowed an account so exorbitant.

It is an imposition upon the taxpayers of the county, and an unnecessary one in addition to the already excessive tribute laid upon us by the L. & N. railroad.

It is an imposition upon the taxpayers of the county, and an unnecessary one in addition to the already excessive tribute laid upon us by the L. & N. railroad.

We sincerely hope that your constituents will be satisfied with the action of your Association in this case.

Our Plan Suits Them Best.

Mr. F. A. Fuller, Louisville, Ky.

DEA: SINCE—Since becoming members of your Association on March 16 (6 weeks since), we have succeeded in collecting over a hundred dollars of bad debts which were considered worthless by us. We have advised our companies and will say that yours suits best. We heartily recommend your Association to all firms having old debts to collect.

It is given out that Miss Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy" will shortly be married to Mr. Alfred Wilkinton, of Syracuse, N. Y., a grandson of a noted Abolitionist leader and agitator. The group-to-be is 28 while Miss Davis is 25, having been born the last year of the war. The daughter of Jeff Davis the wife of a Yankee abolitionist! Surely the war is over.

For years the editor of the Burlington Junction, (Mo.) Post, has been subject to cramp fits or fits of indigestion, which prostrated him for several hours and inflicted him for months for two or three days. For the year he has been using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy whenever occasion required, and it has invariably given him prompt relief. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Eye and Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairies, Scrofules, Care Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatments had failed. 25 and 50 cent boxes for sale by Buckner Leavell.

The county conventions to instruct for Clerk of the Court of Appeals will be held on May 17th. Christian County is placed in rather an embarrassing attitude. She cannot well afford to go against the candidate whose election would provide for one of her own citizens and yet she has a next door neighbor who deserves and expects her support. Col. Jno. D. Shaw, of Trigg, is thoroughly qualified for the office and being in the same judicial district expects to be given first instructions over all other candidates. A good way out of it would be to send our delegation uninstructed and leave them free to act in the convention for the best interests of Western Kentucky.

Sanders and Powers, the Republican contestants, were seated as Senators from Montana Wednesday by a strict party vote. The rump legislature that elected them acted under instructions from Washington and nobody expected anything else.

The Best Result.

Every ingredient employed in producing Blood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of the kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained.

So that from the time of purchase until the time it is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view to attaining the best result. Why don't you try it?

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Dr. R. W. Gaine is seriously sick at Dawson.

Mrs. J. H. Anderson returned from Owensboro yesterday.

Mr. J. W. McGeehee, of Clarksville, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Georgia Williams, of Salem, III., is the guest of her uncle Mr. W. T. Williams.

Miss Fannie Roach and children are visiting Mrs. Mary Campbell, on South Main.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Signed by the Governor.

FRANKFORT, KY., April 16.—The Christian county registration bill only reached the Governor to-day and has been approved. I will send copy same to-morrow. WILLIS L. RUSCO, Ass't. Sec. of State.

Brahman Kitten.

An L. & N. brahman kitten Jenkins was killed at Russellville Tuesday while switching a train. A coupling pin passed through his body. He was the son of a Baptist minister in Bowling Green and was twenty-three years of age.

FLOUR GONE UP.

Wheat has made an advance of 5 cents on the bushel and this fact is said to have been one of the causes that led to the failure of the Nashville bucket shop. Another result of the advance is that the price of flour has been increased 25 cents on the barrel by the local dealers.

Brained Against a Wall.

Sam Asher, receiving clerk in the Rock Spring Distillery at Owensboro, was killed Wednesday in a horrible manner. He was caught in a pulley and thrown by a fly wheel against a wall fifteen feet away. He was instantly killed, brains being knocked out. Asher was 37 years old and leaves a family.

Assaulted With a Poker.

Wednesday morning Dad McCurty and Jack Jones, both colored, had some hot words. Later they met when McCarty struck Jones with an iron poker, making an ugly wound. McCarty was arrested on a warrant charging him with "striking with murderous intent." The offense was reduced to breach of peace and the prisoner was fined $2 and costs.

Killed by His Son.

Wood Price, an old negro near Russellville, was murdered and literally chopped to pieces Monday by Grant Price, his 18-year-old son. The boy ran off as soon as he committed the deed and is still at large. The old man when found was dead, his head being almost cut off and the body was gashed and carved in a dozen places. The friends of the old man are hunting the boy and threaten to lynch him if they catch him.

MATRIMONIAL.

Two Weddings in the City Last Night.

Rev. H. A. Macdonald was called upon to perform two marriage ceremonies and make four hearts happy last night in the short space of half an hour.

At 8 o'clock Mr. W. R. Bowles, the Ninth street photographer, and Miss Jessie R. Hayden were married at the residence of Mr. John Hayden, the bride's father. The wedding party at once repaired to Mr. E. H. Price's residence, where Mr. Geo. E. Randle and Miss Lucy Price were likewise united in the bonds of wedlock at 8:30 o'clock. Both parties then returned to Mr. Hayden's, where a delightful wedding repast was spread. Mr. and Mrs. Randle will at once go to house-keeping on South Virginia street and Mr. and Mrs. Bowles will take board at Capt. B. T. Underwood's.

The KENTUCKIAN extends the usual congratulations.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Saraparilla commands much respect for its great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 doses one dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

To the People:

In obedience to call from different parts of the country, from Democrats and Republicans, I announce myself a candidate to represent Christian County in the Constitutional Convention; and if elected will, to the best of my ability, protect the rights and the interests of the whole people.

W. E. WAUPERN.

Special Notice.

Each Sub-Union will please prepare a suitable banner, and also sashes to be worn in parades on second day's meeting of County Union (April 26). Brethren, do not fail to attend our County Union meeting. It is our duty as well as privilege, to devote some of our time to such a noble cause as we "Unionists" expense.

A. W. Pyle and F. P. Ronshaw have formed a partnership to engage in the furniture business. Their "doggerel" advertisement appears in another column to-day, Mr. Pyle being the poet in charge.

Lookout for circuses! Barrett's will be in Nashville May 8, and Barnum & Bailey's May 28, while Robinson's is already doing the central counties of Kentucky. Of course Hopkinsville will catch one or more of them.

The young ladies of the Ninth street Presbyterian church will give a guild Friday night, April 18th, at the church, at 8 o'clock. Program consists of music, recitations, choral and the "Ten Old Maids from Alaska," by request.

Mr. E. Christian has settled with the insurance companies his losses by the recent fire. He was paid $1,200 on his fixtures and $2,100 on his stock. He carried all told $1,500 insurance and the adjustment was the result of a compromise.

Among the long list of pensions granted Monday were the following:

Edward Carroll, Empire; Jas. P. Hibbard, Princeton; Matilda Dunn, former widow of Joshua M. Rice, Dawson; Cornelius C. Vaughn, Russellville; Mary A., widow of Woodford Ashley, Owensboro.

There is no sickness of consequence in the public schools. The grip and other causes interfered with the attendance last fall and winter, but the statement that the schools are almost broken up by a variety of ills and epidemics is, we are informed by the Superintendent, altogether a mistake.

Walter Campbell who recently went west on a prospecting tour has located in Fort Worth, having secured employment in a large shoe house. He has resigned his place as book-keeper in the Bank of Hopkinsville and has been succeeded by Mr. Hobt. E. Howell. Mr. Campbell has also resigned his commission as lieutenant of the Lathan Light Guards and a successor will be elected at the next meeting.

Notwithstanding Wednesday was a cloudy, disagreeable day for the ladies to turn out, more than two hundred visited Mrs. M. E. Rodgers' spring millinery opening. Her display of fine hats, bonnets and trimmings is said to be the best ever made in this city. Mrs. Rodgers' good taste displayed in the selection of millinery goods this season will prove of great advantage to her customers in making their selections this season.

DEATHS.

Isaac Straus, one of the oldest Jewish citizens of Louisville, died Wednesday, aged 70 years.

Prof. J. W. Elderton, a well-known music teacher of Russellville, died last Sunday. The remains were taken to Corydon, Ky., for interment.

Mr. Thos. P. DeGraffenreid, of Franklin, Tenn., formerly of Russellville, Ky., died suddenly of heart disease last week. He was married some years ago to Miss Long, of Russellville.

Rolla Jackson died at his home in the extreme north-eastern portion of the county, near White Plains, Tuesday, of pneumonia, aged about seventeen years. Deceased was the father of Dr. J. B. Jackson, of Crofton, and was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Judge Chas. G. Smith, one of Clarksville's best known citizens, died Monday in the 57th year of his age.

He had been for several years been Recorder of the city of Clarksville and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. All of his business houses were closed during his funeral Tuesday.

The late O. S. Stevens had $3,500 insurance on his life, payable to his widow.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

AN OBSERVING BOY.

What His Eyes See and How They Spy Out Reasons for It.

The boy of whom I write is never at loss to find something to observe. Last year a heavy shower caught him while he was fishing. From his retreat he kept his eye out to see whatever there was to be seen, and shortly observed the dragon flies, great and little, settling in the tall brook grass for shelter from the rain. Before the shower was fairly over he saw the cedar birds come and drive the dragon flies away. Then he saw the titmice, all their winged finery. The great three-inch dragon flies, painted with black and yellow, were too strong for the birds, but the little slender followers down up in fancy colors—brown, green, blue and dusky—became meat for the hunters.

This, then, in paddling up Cane Creek stream, we saw cedar birds settle on the rush beds near the middle of the stream. This was just after a shower. Had they been catching dragon flies? The boy was not there to tell us.

Some time ago I remonstrated with him for throwing stones at a kingbird. He said, "I was only doing it to please the bird. True enough. It did please the bird. From his perch on a high tree the kingbird calculated the curve of each stone, chattering his defiance as the missile whizzed by, rising a few feet when he saw that it came too near, only to settle again in the same place.

As it amused both bird and boy I allowed it to continue, and for several days the kingbird returned daily to enjoy the sport.

One could not be even the best of boys and not seem to be harboring and hurting creatures, but frequently the most destruction is caused by the most innocent intention. The boy is always bringing home "chipmunks" and young robins leaving the distracted parents to mourn until their offspring is returned. One poor song sparrow doubtless denounced him as a murderer because he choked one of her yellow-nestled nestlings feeding it with strawberries against her expressed wishes, although the jury impaneled on the case gave it an acquittal.

Once I knew him to catch in his hands a full-grown yearling squirrel. From babyhood his cry has been for "Squirrel live to play with." No matter what the creature was—a dog, a kitten (any kitty kitten was treated by him like a Princess in disguise), a bird, a young mouse, or even a toad.—Forest and Stream.

HE DIDN'T UNDERSTAND.

A Kansas Oranger's (she) remonstrance with Chipper impeded.

To prevent mistake in translating what you are saying you should carry a well-established cipher in which words that are not liable to be mistaken by the telegraph operator are used in place of the quotation figures. Some of the Kansas City firms use the cipher in corresponding with their out-of-town customers, and others do not, as the general run of customers are not familiar with the cipher.

A Kansas man was in Kansas City last year and made a large purchase of stock paper, and a commission house took four per cent. margin. He requested the firm to telegraph him the quotations next day, and a clerk of the firm was instructed to present him with a cipher key, but neglected to do so.

The Kansas man now tells the story of his speculation with great gusto.

The next morning he received a telegram:

"Opened, disgust."

He was somewhat surprised, and failed to make any sense out of the message. A week later he received another message:

"Disgusted."

He did not know what it meant, but it was signed. So he telephoned back to the commission firm:

"So am I."

A little later came a telegram:

"Disgusting."

By this time he was getting mad, and sent another message:

"I should say it was disgusting."

Before he had fairly got his answer on the wires there came another message:

"Disheartened."

So was the Kansas man; he waited and did not answer. But when another message came in "Disheartened," he sent back:

"I won't dispute it, and I think you are crazy also. Sell all my wheat at once."

A little later he received a message: "Sold just in time. Now disgruntled."

To say that the Kansas man was mad would be putting it mildly. He took the train that night for Kansas City to see what it meant, and when he found out he treated all around.

Disgust translated is 99 cents, disgusted, 99 cents; disgusting, 100 cents; disdained, 100 cents; dishonest, 100 cents; and disgrace, 99¢.—Kansas City Star.

THE CAVALRY HORSE.

He Must Be the Friend and Companion of the Soldier.

Physical fitness is closely related to mental fitness, for that horses have minds, affections and memories no one can deny, and all who have studied them will bear testimony to the effects of a well-trained horse on the mind and body in the performance of their work, upon their durability. Horses kindly treated will do as much, if not more, service in a given space of time than those which are harshly used, while they will certainly last very much longer. With unfeeling treatment and bad management horses can be worn out in a very short period; whereas, under the opposite conditions their lives might be most usefully prolonged to more than twenty years. Therefore it is that, in order to insist in insuring the physical fitness of their troopers, soldiers should be continually reminded of the importance of kindness to their animals and friends. Their horses are a sacred duty imposed upon all of us; to the soldier it is this and something more, for his life may depend upon the reciprocal feeling of affection existing between himself and his steed. In the words of an old cavalry soldier: "The rider must live forever for his horse, which is his legs, his safety, his honor and his reward."

San Francisco Bulletin.

Reports show large Democratic gains in the Ohio cities where elections for municipal officers were held Monday. The entire Democratic ticket were elected in Cleveland and Columbus. The Democrat got all the offices to be filled in Cincinnati, except that of Clerk of the Police Court. This is indeed a victory for the Democrats. The Republican majority in the Board of Education and the Council in Cincinnati, is very small. It has been for years overwhlemingly Republican.
